petitioners to succeed in the revision. It is further contended that though there is no evidence on record to prove the allegations against the petitioners, both the trial Court and the appellate Court erroneously convicted the petitioners. As such, requested this Court to suspend the sentence passed by the trial Court and confirmed by the appellate Court and release the petitioners on bail.

On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed bail stating that there is no flaw in the judgment of trial Court and there are no grounds to consider this application. Hence prayed this Court to dismiss this application.

In view of the submissions made by both the counsel and material on record, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is allowed suspending the sentence alone imposed by the trial Court and the petitioners are granted bail till disposal of this revision on payment of 10% of the compensation amount awarded by the trial Court and the petitioner No.2 shall execute a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of learned Principal Junior Civil Judge-Cum-Judicial Magistrate of First Class, at L.B. Nagar.

Further during bail, the petitioners shall not indulge in any criminal acts.
