I.A. NO: 2 OF 2026

Petition under Section 528 of B.N.S.S. praying that in the circumstances stated in the grounds filed in support of the CRIMINAL PETITION, the High Court may be pleased to Stay all further proceedings including the arrest of petitioner/Accused in STC NI No.44 of 2024 on the file of the Principal Junior civil Judge-cum-Principal Judicial Magistrate of First Class, at Wanaparthy pending disposal of CRLP No.7196 of 2026, on the file of the High Court.

The Court made the following:

ORDER

Notice before admission.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor takes notice on behalf of respondent No.1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to take out personal notice to respondent No.2 as well as to the counsel appearing on behalf of respondent No.2 before the trial Court in S.T.C.NI.No.44 of 2024 by way of Speed Post with Acknowledgment Due and any other mode which is available under law and file proof of service.

Mr.Narender, learned counsel representing Mr.R.A.Achuthanand, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that respondent No.2 filed a private complaint vide S.T.C.NI.No.44 of 2024 against the petitioner for the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (for short, "the NI Act"), despite there being no legally enforceable debt between the petitioner and respondent No. 2. He further submits that respondent No. 2 had filed a similar complaint against one Vema Venkatramulu vide C.C.NI.No.204 of 2025 in STC.NI.No.6897 of 2022, wherein respondent No.2 herself, during the course of her evidence, admitted that she had filed similar cases against Saleem, B.Ranga Reddy, B.Jeevam Prasad, and Satya Sai, in which the accused were acquitted for the offences under Sections 138 and 142 of the NI Act. The learned trial Court, in those cases, recorded a specific finding that there was no legally enforceable debt between the complainant and the accused therein. He further submits that respondent No. 2 has filed the present complaint with an intention to harass the petitioner. Hence, continuation of proceedings against the petitioner amounts to a clear abuse of process of law.

Taking into consideration the above submissions, this Court is of the view that detailed examination is required for adjudication of the case.

Post on 06.07.2026.

Till such time, there shall be an interim stay of all further proceedings against the petitioner/accused in S.T.C.NI.No.44 of 2024 on the file of the learned Principal Junior Civil Judge-cum-Principal Judicial Magistrate of First Class at Wanaparthy. In default of filing proof of service, the stay stands vacated.
