Post on 09.07.2026. I.A.No.1 of 2026 This application is filed for the petitioner seeking to suspend the sentence imposed against the petitioner in C.C.No.47 of 2019 vide judgment, dated 19.03.2025 as upheld by the learned Sessions Judge, Nizamabad vide Judgment, dated 01.04.2026 in CrI.A.No.16 of 2025, whereby the petitioner was found guilty of the offence punishable under Section 304-A of I.P.C. and accordingly he was convicted and sentenced to undergo simple imprisonment for two years and to pay fine of Rs.5,000/-, in default he shall suffer simple imprisonment for three months. The same was upheld by learned Sessions Judge, vide judgment, dated 01.04.2026 in CrI.A.No.16 of 2025.

		The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that though the evidence on record is not sufficient to prove the guilt of the petitioner, basing on the presumptions and assumptions, the learned trial Court convicted the petitioner; that the petitioner has good grounds to succeed in the revision and hence, he prays to suspend sentence imposed against the petitioner by granting bail to him. Considering the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the sentence of imprisonment imposed against the petitioner alone is hereby suspended, pending disposal of the revision case and the petitioner shall be enlarged on bail on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Armoor, Nizamabad District.
