3. The allegation against the petitioner is that he placed the paddy heap on the road in a negligence manner without taking any precautionary measures and obstructing the public way, due to which, the de facto complainant and his wife, who were travelling on a two wheeler, fell down on the road, sustained injuries and the wife of de facto complainant succumbed to injuries, after two days of the incident.

4. Learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner alone has not kept paddy on the road and various farmers also kept their paddy and maize on the road.
