Counsel for the Petitioners: SRI P.V. RAMANA

Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR HOME

The Court made the following: ORDER

2025:TSHC:39617

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE NAMAVARAPU RAJESHWAR RAO
WRIT PETITION No.13571 OF 2017

ORDER:

This Writ Petition is filed seeking the following relief:

"...to issue a Writ, Order or direction more in the nature of Mandamus declaring the orders passed by the first respondent in Memo No.8389/Ser.II/AI/2016 dated 13.7.2016 and the orders in Memo No.767/34/Pen.I/A1/2012 dated 20.4.2012 in rejecting the claim of the Petitioners for continuing them under Old Pension Scheme i.e., Revised Pension Rules, 1980 and applying Contributory Pension Scheme introduced in G.O.Ms.No.655 Finance (Pension-I) Department dated 22.9.2004 though the petitioners were recruited prior to the date of introduction of the said Scheme as illegal. Consequently, direct the Respondents to continue the petitioners under Old Pension Scheme i.e., Revised Pension Rules, 1980 and to pass..."

2. Heard Sri P.V.Ramana, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits as follows:

That the then State of Andhra Pradesh Police Recruitment Board, Hyderabad, issued recruitment Notification, dated 18.12.2003 for filling up the posts of Stipendiary Cadet Trainee Police Constables in Civil, A.P.S.P and A.R. in all the Districts, duly inviting applications for recruitment. On 28.01.2004, the candidates were asked to appear with required documents before the notified authorities. 01.07.2003, is the date on which the eligibility in respect of educational qualification would be taken into consideration. SSC is the qualification. After passing preliminary test for physical fitness, written examination was conducted on 14.03.2004. After evaluating the marks in respect of physical test and written examination, provisional list of selected candidates was notified as per merit on 21.08.2004 in daily Newspapers.

4. After publication of the provisional Selection List on 21.08.2004, the Chairman of the Police Recruitment Board, issued a Memo on 23.08.2004 for sending the petitioners for training. In spite of that, for a period of three months, no action has been taken by the concerned Commandants for sending the candidates for training. On 17.11.2004, administrative orders were issued for undergoing training for a period of 9 months. Accordingly, the petitioners were sent for training on 16.11.2004 and 17.11.2004 respectively and successfully completed training. Thereafter, the petitioners were appointed duly counting the entire training period for the purpose of all other benefits.

5. The Contributory Pension Scheme was introduced by the then Government of Andhra Pradesh with effect from 01.09.2004 vide G.O.Ms.No.655 Finance (Pension-I) Department, dated 22.09.2004. The said G.O., was given retrospective date with effect from 01.09.2004. It is provided that all new employees "who are recruited on or after 01.09.2004" are to become members of the scheme. The employees will pay monthly contribution of 10% of the basic pay and DA from their salary to the Contributory Pension Scheme.

6. The petitioners were sent on training after 01.09.2004 thinking that they would be treated under Contributory Pension Scheme. The petitioners made representations to the Director General of Police and the Government. The Director General of Police, in Lr.No.L2/34766/2016, dated 18.05.2016 submitted proposals for consideration of petitioners' cases under Old Pension Scheme (Revised Pension Scheme of 1980) and given valid reasons for extending the said benefit. The Director General of Police recommended that issuance of Notification and existence of vacancies is to be taken into account for the purpose of extending Old Pension Rules and thereby, the petitioners can be continued under Old Pension Rules and thereby petitioners can be continued under Old Pension Rules, rather than applying new Pension Scheme.

7. The Government based upon un-communicated Circular issued by the Finance Department in Memo No.767/34/Pen.I/A1/2012, dated 20.04.2012 rejected the proposals of the Director General of Police wherein it is stated that as per Finance Clarification referred above, the date of joining into Government service is only criteria to determine that whether an employee comes under New Contributory Pension Scheme or not. The date of Notification for recruitment shall not be taken as criteria. While giving the above reason, the Government declared that the petitioners are not eligible for Old Pension Scheme.

8. While issuing the Contributory Pension Scheme in G.O.Ms.No.65 Finance (Pension-I), Department dated 22.09.2004, it is expressly provided that the employees who are recruited on or after 01.09.2004 will come under New Pension Scheme. Since the notification was issued 18.12.2003 and selection list has been published on 21.08.2004 for all purposes it has to be treated that the petitioners are recruited prior to 01.09.2004 and thereby, they are all entitled to continue under Revision Pension Scheme (old) rather than New Pension Scheme.

9. Once notification was issued taking into account of the availability of existing vacancies prior to 18.12.2003, the Rules existing as on 18.12.2003 are to be made applicable to the candidates who were appointed to pursuance to the said recruitment. All the petitioners were appointed prior to 18.12.2003 i.e., date of Notification, though they were given actual appointment in the year, 2004. It is the settled principle of law that the Rules existing as on the date of availability of vacancies or the Rules existing as on the date of initiation of recruitment process are only relevant rules governs the claims of the petitioners. Therefore, the Revised Pension Rules, 1980 which were existing as on the date of issuance of the Notification, are only to be taken into account rather than the New Contributory Pension Scheme. Accordingly, prayed to allow the Writ Petition.

10. This matter pertains to the year 2017. Till date, no counter has been filed by the respondents. As such, right to file counter is forfeited.

11. Learned counsel further submitted that the present writ petition is squarely covered by the common order passed by the Division Bench of this Hon'ble Court dated 19.03.2025 in W.P.Nos.22559, 15644 and 11398 of 2023, and also orders passed by this Court in W.P.Nos.5724 of 2025 and 20466 of 2025.

12. The Hon'ble Division Bench while passing the common dated 19.03.2025 in W.P.Nos.22559, 15644 and 11398 of 2023, has observed as follows:

"The opinion of this bench is that the case of the petitioners herein would fall within the Old Pension Scheme. But considering the fact that there is no information submitted by either of the respondents in respect of opportunity being given to the petitioners to exercise their options, we feel it desirable and appropriate that the respondents shall seek options as a onetime measure from all the petitioners, who are covered under the present writ petitions and any other employees who are recruited and whose selection process was commenced prior to 01.09.2004 as against the vacancies which had arisen much prior to 31.12.2003. Consequently respondents shall take further steps accordingly and make applicability of the relevant pension rules to the petitioners as opted by them, which are applicable to them as per the Judgment of the High Court of Bombay in Khilari Rajendra Eknath's case (Supra). It is further directed that the entire exercise shall be completed by the respondents within a period of three (03) months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order".

13. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Services has not seriously disputed the above fact and submitted that the respondents would consider the case of the petitioners and pass appropriate orders.

14. In view of the aforesaid submissions, the respondent-authorities are directed to consider the case of the petitioners by following the common order passed by the Division Bench of this Hon'ble Court dated 19.03.2025 in W.P.Nos.22559, 15644 and 11398 of 2023, and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of eight (08) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

15. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending in this Writ Petition, shall stand closed.
