offence under Section 3 of the PDPP Act.

The contention of learned counsel for the appellant is that there is no evidence on record to prove the accusations against the appellant. He further submitted that the appellant is having good grounds to succeed in the appeal. Therefore, he prayed the Court to allow this petition.

On the other hand, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the bail petition, contending that there is no illegality in the judgment of the trial Court and that the trial Court has rightly passed the impugned order. Therefore, he prayed the Court to dismiss the petition.

Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the appellant, it is considered fit to suspend the sentence of imprisonment alone imposed against the appellant, till disposal of the appeal.

Accordingly, the sentence of imprisonment alone is suspended, till disposal of the appeal on the same terms and conditions as imposed by the trial Court.

Further during bail, the appellant shall not indulge in any criminal acts.
