SL. NO.	DATE	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
		2026, dated 05.08.2026, was registered. It is further submitted that the registration of the F.I.R. was reported to the trial Court vide letter dated 12.08.2026. A copy of the said F.I.R. has also been furnished before this Court. Therefore, according to the learned Assistant Government Pleader, there is compliance with the directions of the trial Court and the F.I.R. has been registered. However, this Court finds that the trial Court had referred the private complaint for investigation and submission of a report vide letter dated 03.01.2026. It appears that the respondent police did not take any action on the said private complaint pursuant to the direction of the trial Court until a fresh complaint is received by them on 05.08.2026. The failure to act upon the private complaint referred by the trial Court amounts to Contempt of Courts Act. Therefore, the concerned officer is directed to explain the reasons for not taking action on the private complaint referred to by the trial Court. List this matter on 20.08.2026. PRN TMD,J
