2. Heard Sri C.V.Srinath, learned counsel for the petitioner/accused No.1 and Sri Jithender Rao Veeramalla, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent No.1-State.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has never threatened anyone much less the local residents. The de facto complainant has raised false allegations in the complaint stating that the petitioner has created public nuisance with political motive and that since the petitioner is facing false allegations. He further argued that there is delay of 25 days in lodging the complaint. The alleged incident is dated 15.07.2025 while the complaint is lodged on 08.08.2025. He therefore prayed to quash the proceedings against him.

4. On the other hand, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor has opposed the petition saying that just on the ground of delay, the proceedings cannot be quashed and has fairly submitted that the offences alleged against the petitioner is less than seven (07) years. He has also submitted copy of instructions received from the Sub-Inspector of Police, Neredmet Police Station, Rachakonda Commissionerate, wherein it is mentioned that a series of 14 complaints are pending against the petitioner herein.

6. Perused the record. The offences alleged against the petitioner are under Sections 292, 351(2), 189 read with 190 BNS, 2023 which are punishable with less than seven years of imprisonment and the investigation is still pending. It is further made out that 14 cases were registered against the petitioner/accused No.1 out of which one case is still pending before the Ranga Reddy Court Thus, in the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to direct the Police to follow the procedure laid down under Section 35 (3) of the BNSS (previously section 41-A of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973) and also the guidelines formulated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Arnesh Kumar v.
