Appeal under Section 19 of Family Courts Act, preferred to the High Court against the order of the Court of the Family Judge at Warangal, Warangal District made in FCOP.No.217 of 2014, dated 03-03-2017.

The appeal coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Petition and grounds filed herein and the order of the High Court dated 02-08-2017, 30-8-2017, 26.10.2017, 8.3.2021, 23.03.2021 & 16.04.2021 made herein, the Court made the following

ORDER:

1. On the last date of hearing, we had directed both parties to log into the hearing virtually, for this court to explore the possibility of a one time settlement, if possible.
2. At the outset, learned counsel for the respondent/wife states that the appellant/husband is again in default having failed to pay the paltry amount of maintenance of Rs.2,000/- to the wife and Rs.2,000/- to the minor son of the parties for the months of April, May and June, 2021.
3. The appellant/husband, who is virtually present along with his counsel, disputes the said submission and states that the maintenance for the month of April, 2021 was deposited in the account of the respondent/wife on 22.04.2021 and the maintenance for the month of May, 2021 was deposited on 22.05.2021. He states that the maintenance for the month of June, 2021 is pending.

4. Henceforth, the appellant/husband is directed to ensure that the monthly maintenance is deposited into the account of the respondent/wife on or before tenth day of each calendar month. The maintenance for the month of June, 2021 shall be deposited by 19.06.2021.

5. The respondent/wife is absent. Learned counsel for the respondent/wife explains her absence by stating that she is suffering from COVID-19 infection. Learned counsel states that there is no likelihood of a settlement in the matter, as the respondent/wife is not inclined to arrive any one time financial settlement for the parties to part company amicably.

6. In view of the aforesaid stand taken by the parties, this court is of the opinion that for the present, there does not appear any scope of a settlement between them.

7. Admit.

8. List the present appeal 'for hearing' in due course.
