Meanwhile, registry is directed to call for the records from the trial Court, prepare paper book and put up in the bundle by the next date of hearing. I.A.No.1 of 2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner/appellant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor. This application is filed by the petitioner/appellant in the appeal seeking to suspend the sentence dated 08.09.2025 passed in SPL. S.C.No.05 of 2021 by the Special Judge for Trial of Cases under the SCs/STs (POA) Act, 1989 –cum-II Additional District and Sessions Judge, Adilabad, wherein the petitioner was convicted for the offences under Section 354 of IPC and sentenced to undergo R.I for a period of one year and to pay fine of Rs.3000/- in default of payment of fine to undergo S.I for a period of one month, he was further sentenced to undergo R.I for a period of one year and to pay fine of Rs.3000/- in default of payment of fine to undergo S.I for a period of one month for the offence under section 3(2)(va) of the SCs & STs (POA) Act and the substantive sentences	Tr. to I.O/daily orders folder before corrections, if any.

The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that there are no grounds to convict the petitioner and there is no evidence on record, even though the trial Court erroneously convicted the petitioner herein. He further submitted that there are good grounds for the petitioner to succeed in the appeal. As such, prayed this Court to suspend the sentence imposed by the trial Court, till disposal of this appeal. At this stage, the Court is informed that the trial Court has already suspended the sentence imposed on petitioner and released him on bail.

On the other hand, learned Assistant Public Prosecutor would submit that notice was served on the victim and he also opposed bail on the ground that there is no flaw in the judgment of trial court, as such, prayed this Court to dismiss this application.

Considering the same and having regard to the fact that the petitioner has already complied with the conditions imposed by the trial Court, this Court deems it fit to suspend the sentence alone imposed on the petitioner in SPL. S.C.No.05 of 2021 by the Special Judge for Trial of Cases under the SCs/STs (POA) Act, 1989 –cum-II Additional District and Sessions Judge, Adilabad on the same terms and conditions as imposed by the trial Court in the above sessions case, till disposal of this appeal.

Accordingly, this application is allowed. Further during bail, the petitioner shall not indulge in any criminal acts.
