petitioners herein and there are good grounds for the petitioners to succeed in the appeal. As such, prayed this Court to suspend the sentence imposed by the trial Court, till disposal of this appeal. At this stage, the Court is informed that the trial Court has already suspended the sentence imposed on petitioners and released them on bail.

On the other hand, learned Assistant Public Prosecutor opposed bail on the ground that there is no flaw in the judgment of trial court, as such, prayed this Court to dismiss this application.

Considering the same and having regard to the fact that the petitioners have already complied with the conditions imposed by the trial Court, this Court deems it fit to suspend the sentence alone imposed on the petitioners in NDSC.No.48 of 2022 by the Special Judge for Trial of cases under NDPS Act-cum-I-Additional Sessions Judge, Adilabad on the same terms and conditions as imposed by the trial Court in the above sessions case, till disposal of this appeal.

Accordingly, this application is allowed. Further during bail, the petitioners shall not indulge in any criminal acts.
