Meanwhile, registry is directed to call for the records from the trial Court, prepare paper book and put up in the bundle by the next date of hearing. I.A.No.1 of 2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner/appellant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor. This application is filed by the petitioner/appellant in the appeal seeking to suspend the sentence dated 29.09.2025 passed in NDSC.No.05 of 2024 by the Special Judge for Trial of cases under NDPS Act-cum-I-Additional Sessions Judge, Adilabad, wherein the petitioner was convicted for the offence under Section 8(b) r/w.20(a)(ii)(B) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act and he was sentenced to undergo R.I for a period of three years and to pay fine of Rs.10,000/- in default of payment of fine to undergo S.I for a period of three months. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that even though there is no evidence on record, the trial Court erroneously convicted the petitioner herein and there are good grounds for the	Tr. to I.O/daily orders folder before corrections, if any.

		petitioner to succeed in the appeal. As such, prayed this Court to suspend the sentence imposed by the trial Court, till disposal of this appeal. At this stage, the Court is informed that the trial Court has already suspended the sentence imposed on petitioner and released him on bail. On the other hand, learned Assistant Public Prosecutor opposed bail on the ground that there is no flaw in the judgment of trial court, as such, prayed this Court to dismiss this application. Considering the same and having regard to the fact that the petitioner has already complied with the conditions imposed by the trial Court, this Court deems it fit to suspend the sentence alone imposed on the petitioner in NDSC.No.05 of 2024 by the Special Judge for Trial of cases under NDPS Act-cum-I-Additional Sessions Judge, Adilabad on the same terms and conditions as imposed by the trial Court in the above sessions case, till disposal of this appeal. Accordingly, this application is allowed. Further during bail, the petitioner shall not indulge in any criminal acts. SKS,J Rds
