		attract as the complainant has not been inflicted with any injuries and no medical certificate is filed to that effect. He further submits that the dispute is essentially of civil in nature, which is given a cloak of criminal offence; the petitioner has good grounds to succeed in the case. Hence, seeks to allow the petition. The matter needs detailed examination. Learned APP vehemently opposed the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and contended that the investigation is yet to be completed and interference of this Court at this stage is unwarranted. Therefore, he prayed to dismiss the Petition. In the meantime, as an interim measure, this Court deems it appropriate to stay all further proceedings against the petitioner/accused in Cr.No.544 of 2024 on the file of Peddapalli Police Station, Ramagundam District for the offences punishable under Sections 75(2), 329(1), 79, 351(2), 109 BNS, 3(l)(r)(s)W(ii) SC ST POA Act, till 23.01.2025.
