.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed therewith, the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of Mandamus to declare the delay and inaction on the part of the Respondent No.5 Police in recovering the stolen property (Amour Safety Locker) from the possession of the Respondents No.6 to 8 and others in Crime No.851/2025 in accordance with law as arbitrary, illegal and consequently direct the Respondent No.5 to recover the stolen property (Amour Safety Locker) from the possession of the 6th Respondent and others by conducting Panchanama in FIR No.851/2025 on the file of the 5th Respondent Police Station forthwith in accordance with law in the interest of justice.

The petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the petition and the grounds filed in support thereof and as per the court order dated on 01.07.2026 and upon hearing the arguments of SRI P NAGENDRA REDDY Advocate for the Petitioner and GP FOR HOME for the Respondent Nos. 1 to 5, the Court made the following.

ORDER

Mr. M.Prasad, Sub-Inspector of Police, L.B.Nagar Police Station, representing respondent No.5, has appeared in person.

Learned Government Pleader for Home has filed copies of the photographs to demonstrate that there was hectic search for the locker. It is submitted that the locker could not be traced.

On the earlier occasion, the learned Government Pleader on written instructions submitted that charge sheet has already been filed and there is no locker which allegedly contained documents, gold and cash of the complainant.

Therefore, it appears that the police have not taken any steps to recover the locker and without the same, the charge sheet has also been filed. Respondent No.2 is, therefore, directed to verify the same and file a report by the next date of hearing.

List this case on 30.07.2026

Learned Government Pleader submits that the charge sheet is returned.

The appearance of respondent No.5 is dispensed with for the time being.
