3. Brief facts of the case are as follows:

(i) Petitioner's father namely Sri Parasaraboina Sailu, S/o. P. Muthaiah, was initially appointed as a Cook in the year 1986 in the Disabled Boys Hostel, Nalgonda, on daily wage basis by following due process of law. He rendered more than 21 years of service and was eligible for absorption/regularization of his services as per G.O.Ms.No.212, and accordingly his services were regularized as Last Grade Worker in the year 2000. While he was in service, he expired on duty on 20.07.2007. Despite rendering continuous service from 1986 until his death, the respondents failed to provide retirement benefits to the deceased employee at the time of his death.

(ii) After the death of her father, the petitioner, who had studied up to 7th class and is the only daughter and dependent on the deceased employee, submitted a representation dated 08.10.2007 to the respondents seeking compassionate appointment. As per G.O.Ms.No.350 dated 30.07.1999, even a married daughter is eligible for compassionate appointment, and the petitioner fulfilled all the conditions prescribed under G.O.Ms.No.687 GAD dated 03.10.1977 and G.O.Ms.No.612 dated 30.10.1991, including submission of no-property and no-earning-member certificates. However, the respondents failed to consider her claim for compassionate appointment. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner filed the present Writ Petition.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner prays this Court that appropriate orders may be passed in this Writ Petition by directing the respondents to consider the petitioner's representation dated 08.10.2007.

5. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Services-III would submits that the respondents would consider the petitioner's representation dated 08.10.2007 and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.
