Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that pursuant to the directions issued by this Court in its common orders dated 18-10-2023 and 20-10-2023 in W.A.Nos.796, 798, 1199 and 1347 of 2016, the matter was remanded to the 2nd respondent and taken up to consider the same afresh and passed the impugned order in Case No.F1/2823/2024 dated 12-08-2025. Learned counsel for the petitioners would further submit that the 2nd respondent has erred in observing that in view of the conversion of the subject land to Non-Agricultural use and the crystallization of third party rights, the authority no longer retains jurisdiction to interfere with rights over such lands under the Inams Abolition Act. He would further submit that the matter was remanded to consider afresh on the aspect of jurisdiction of the authority amount to interfere with rights over such land under the Act. In the impugned order, it was held that the authority does not hold any jurisdiction to pass such an impugned order, which is perverse and against the order passed by the Division Bench of this Court in the above Writ Appeals. Hence he seeks to pass appropriate orders suspending the impugned orders dated 12-08-2025.
