ORDER

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the issue raised in the present criminal petition is squarely covered by the order passed by this Court in CrI.P.No.14015 of 2025 on the ground that accused No.5 had approached this court and filed the above said criminal petition seeking to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.1189 of 2025 on the file of the Principal Judicial First Class Magistrate at Bhongir, and this Court, by order dated 24.11.2025, quashed the said proceedings. A copy of the said order is placed on record. The petitioner is also entitled to the same benefit on the ground that very same allegations are levelled against the petitioner/accused No.4.

Mr. Y. Saidev Rohan, learned counsel for respondent No.2, submitted that allegations against the petitioner and the allegations against accused No.5 are different. Hence, the order passed by this Court in favour of accused No.5 is not applicable to the petitioner.

Taking into consideration the above submissions, this Court is of the view that the matter requires detailed examination.

Post on 06.04.2026.

The presence of the petitioner/accused No.4 in C.C.No.1189 of 2025 on the file of the Principal Judicial First Class Magistrate at Bhongir, is dispensed with, subject to the condition that he shall be represented through his counsel on each and every date of hearing. If the presence of the petitioner is required, he shall appear before the trial Court. In case of non-appearance on the specific date fixed by the trial Court for his appearance, the trial Court is entitled to proceed with the matter, in accordance with law.
