CORAM : MILIND N. JADHAV, J.

DATE : APRIL 10, 2026

P.C.:

1. Not on Board. Mentioned by way of filing praecipe dated 10.04.2026. Perused the praecipe.
2. Heard Mr. Cama, learned Advocate for Appellant / Original Plaintiff and Mr. Khandekar, learned Advocate for Respondents.
3. Mr. Cama draws my attention to the twin orders; one order dated 25.02.2026 appended to praecipe and order dated 26.02.2026 appended at page No.37 to the Appeal from Order.
4. After reading both the orders, it prima facie appears that in the order dated 26.02.2026, in line No.5 the words 'interim reliefs' ought to have been preceded by alphabets 'ad-' and rightly so Mr. Khandekar, learned Advocate appearing for the opposite party persuades the Court to give him time to file Affidavit-in-Reply in the Notice of Motion which they shall file within three weeks from today. Affidavit-in-Rejoinder thereto shall be filed by Plaintiff within three weeks thereafter.

5. Once pleadings are completed, learned Trial Court is requested by this Court to dispose of Notice of Motion finally and as expeditiously as possible and in any event within a period of four weeks thereafter.

6. The order dated 26.02.2026 shall stand modified to that extent by incorporating the word 'ad-' in front of the word 'interim' in line No.5 and the operative part thereof. This order is passed by consent of the parties after noticing the above issue in the twin orders as admittedly the Notice of Motion was not heard finally.

7. Learned Trial Court shall incorporate the same when the matter is heard by the learned Trial Court. Rest of the order shall remain the same.

8. All contentions of both the parties are expressly kept open.

9. In view of the above, Appeal from Order is disposed. In view of disposal of Appeal from Order, pending Interim Application is also disposed.
