CORAM : MILIND N. JADHAV, J.
DATE : MAY 08, 2026.

P.C.:

- 1. Not on Board. Mentioned by way of filing praecipe dated 08.05.2026. Perused the praecipe.
- 2. Heard Mr. Tahiya, learned Advocate for Applicant and Mr. Kadam, learned Advocate for Petitioner.
- 3. The lis between the parties is something which can be resolved if the parties forget their animosity and attempt a reconciliation. The Court expresses faith in the learned Advocate appearing at the bar to attempt an amicable resolution without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties. The deceased had three daughters, two of the daughters are litigating before me. The issue is very simple. The property can be divided 1/3rd, 1/3rd and 1/3rd to the three daughters and whatever are the damages and expenses of the concerned property, those expenses may be set aside accordingly.

4. Though a lot of submissions and exchanges are made in the Court it may not be proper to list all those submissions herein because the Court feels that an amicable resolution is possible in this case. If any disclosure is required to be done by one of the parties, the said disclosure can always be given to the other parties without prejudice to their rights and contentions.

5. List the matter for filing Consent Terms without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties on 8th June 2026 at the joint request of the learned Advocates.

6. In the event of the parties come to an amicable resolution, liberty is given to the parties to move the Vacation Court also.
