CORAM : MADHAV J. JAMDAR, J.

DATE : 19th JUNE, 2026.

P.C.:-

- 1) Though Court Receiver's Report No. 376 of 2023 and Court Receiver's Report No. 556 of 2025 are not listed today, the same are taken on board.
- 2) Heard Mr. Kamod, learned counsel appearing for the Applicant/Plaintiff.
- 3) By the present Interim Application, the Applicant seeks ad-interim relief in terms of prayer clause (a). Despite service, none appears on behalf of the Defendant. Consequently, the averments and contents of the Interim Application have remained uncontroverted.

4) For the reasons set out in the Interim Application, the same is allowed in terms of prayer clauses (a), which read as under :

“(a) this Hon'ble Court be pleased to pass an interim order directing the Court Receiver, High Court, Bombay, to destroy the inventory of infringing goods bearing the infringing marks and artworks seized by the Court Receiver as mentioned in its Court Receiver Report Nos. 376 of 2023 and 556 of 2025 after de-sealing the infringing goods, retain few samples each of the goods so seized, make a fresh inventory and hand over custody thereof to the Plaintiff to make the same available for trial.”

5) The Interim Application is disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

6) Mr. Kamod, learned counsel submits that as the services of the Court Receiver are no longer required, the Court Receiver may be discharged. Accordingly, the Court Receiver stands discharged without passing accounts, subject to payment of all costs, charges and expenses of the Court Receiver, which shall be paid by the Plaintiff within a period of two weeks from the date of demand being raised by the office of the Court Receiver.

7) As the Court Receiver stands discharged, Court Receiver's Report No.376 of 2023 and Court Receiver's Report No. 556 of 2025 stand disposed of.
