A.G.P. for Applicant : Mr. S.G. Sangle

.....

CORAM : SANJAY A. DESHMUKH, J.
DATED : 17th JUNE, 2026

PER COURT :-

1. The civil application No. 3177 of 2002 is filed for condonation of delay of 694 days caused in filing the first appeal.
2. Perused the application and heard learned A.G.P. for the applicant. Learned A.G.P. for the applicant submitted that for processing the application to the Law and Judiciary department, delay of 694 days was caused.
3. On perusal of application, it appears that though some time was required for processing the application, there is no such documentary evidence on record to show that there are sufficient reasons to condone the delay, as contemplated under Section 5 of the Limitation Act.

4. Considering all these aspects, it is not established that the delay is not deliberately caused and the application deserves to be rejected. The application is therefore, rejected.

5. The court fees be refunded as per the Rules.

6. In view of rejection of civil application, filed for condonation of delay, nothing further survives for consideration in the civil application filed for stay and the same is accordingly disposed of, as infructuous.
