A memo dated 12.01.2023 has been filed by the counsel who had appeared for the respondents 2 to 4 stating the following;-

"The legal Representatives of the said 1st respondent was brought on record.

The counsel appearing for Respondents 1 and 2 expired on 13.10.2013. The other counsel on record was having some health problems and hence he could not appear in Courts regularly. Moreover, the 2nd Respondent for whom they are appearing also expired.

Hence in these circumstances, it was decided to handover the papers to the party. Since he did not turn up, in spite of repeated communications and some communications set to him were also returned, the Bundles were sent to the Advocate appeared for them in the lower Court, so that he can receive the same."

2. Considering the fact that the papers have not been received by the parties directly and taking note of the fact that the 2nd and 3rd respondents are no more, the Registry is directed to take notice to the 4th respondent returnable by 10.02.2023. Meanwhile, the learned counsel for the appellant shall ascertain the details of the legal representatives of the 2nd and 3rd respondent and take steps to bring them on record.

3. The records would also show that the respondents 5 to 10 who are the legal heirs of the 1st respondent have been set ex parte.
