Learned Additional Master I has placed this matter before this Court since there was no representation on the side of the plaintiff. He has stated in the order dated 25.09.2024 that from 19.02.2024 onwards, the case has been repeatedly adjourned for examination of the plaintiff's side evidence.

2.As seen from the order of the learned Additional Master I, sufficient time has been given to the plaintiff for recording their side of evidence.

3.Today, the learned counsel for the plaintiff is present. He seeks a final chance for the plaintiff to record their evidence before the learned Additional Master I and would submit that on the specified date fixed by this Court, the plaintiff's evidence shall be present for chief examination.
