ORDER

Pursuant to the orders of the Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No.1926 of 2010 dated 26.11.2025, I listed the appeal for hearing today. The date had been fixed by the Supreme Court itself.

2. Mr.Om Prakash, learned Senior Counsel represents for the appellants. There was no appearance for the respondent Temple. Hence, Mr.N.R.R.Arun Natarajan, learned Special Government Pleader was requested to take notice on behalf of the Temple.

3. Insofar as the records are concerned, on verification of the same, the Registry reports that post the disposal of the Second Appeal on 03.08.2009, the records have been destroyed and the remaining papers are untraceable. When this aspect was pointed out, Mr.Om Prakash stated that the copies of entire records which have been filed before the
