ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by N.Sathish Kumar J.)

The order of detention passed by the second respondent in No.185/TNPD/APC/2025 dated 17.12.2025 is sought to be quashed in the present Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents.

3.Though several grounds have been raised by the petitioner in the habeas corpus petition assailing the detention order, in the hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner confined his argument only with regard to non- application of mind on the part of the detaining authority in arriving at the subjective satisfaction while passing the impugned order of detention.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the detenu was arrested and remanded to judicial custody in connection with the ground case.

He further submitted that in respect of the main accused in the ground case, the detention order has been revoked already vide G.O. Rt.No.689, Home, Prohibition and Excise (XIII) Department dated 29.01.2026. Hence, he prayed that the impugned detention order passed against the detenu may be quashed as there is non application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority in arriving at the subjective satisfaction.

5. The said submission made by learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has not been disputed by learned Government Advocate.

6. On considering the submissions made by both sides, it is seen that without taking note of the G.O. Rt.No.689, Home, Prohibition and Excise (XIII) Department dated 29.01.2026 revoking the detention order passed in respect of the main accused, the impugned detention order has been passed as against the detenu herein, which clearly shows non application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority. Therefore, the impugned preventive detention order deserves to be dislodged.

7. In the result, this Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the detention order passed by the second respondent in in No.185/TNPD/APC/2025 dated 17.12.2025 is hereby set aside. The detenu viz., Thiru.Naveenraj, Male, Age 27 years, S/o.Ettiappan, is directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless he is required in connection with any other case.
