CS.No.633 of 2010

Dr.R.N.MANJULA, J.

The Registry is directed to make a note regarding the defendants who had earlier filed their written statements but got them returned and have not re-presented the same.

2.At the request of the learned respective counsels, this matter is ordered to be listed after two weeks.

3. The Registry is further directed to furnish a note indicating which of the defendants, who have already entered appearance, have lost their right to file a written statement in view of the expiry of the maximum time limit prescribed.
