ORDER

When this matter came up for consideration on 15.09.2025, there was no representation for the appellant. When the matter was listed again on 07.10.2025, it was reported by the learned counsel for the appellant that the second appellant is no more and that steps need to be taken. Hence, the matter was adjourned for taking steps. Again, when the matter was listed on 05.12.2025, it was noticed that no steps have been taken by the appellants to bring on record the legal representatives of the deceased second appellant.

Hence, this court was constrained to pass the following order:-

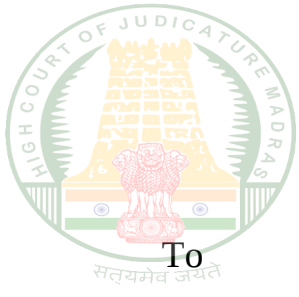

“Though learned counsel for the appellants took time on 07.10.2025 to take necessary steps consequent upon the death of the 2nd appellant, as on date no steps have been taken.

2. In the circumstances, list the matter on 09.01.2026. If no steps are taken by that date, the appeal shall stand dismissed, insofar as the 2nd appellant is concerned, without any further reference to the Court.”

2. Today, when the matter is taken up for consideration, it is represented by the learned counsel for the appellants that the second appellant is alive and there is no necessity for taking any steps. From this, it is evident that the learned counsel for the appellant deliberately misrepresented the matter before this court on 07.10.2025 for the sake of adjournment and wasted the judicial time of this court. Hence, the appellant is imposed with costs of Rs.2,000/-, which shall be paid to the Tamil Nadu State Legal Services Authority, Chennai, within a period of two weeks. If the appellant fails to pay the same within the stipulated time, the second appeal shall stand dismissed automatically without any reference to this court.
