ORDER

Challenging the concurrent findings of the courts below, the 1st defendant preferred this Second Appeal. On seeing the facts, the appeal is of the year 2003 and both parties are now inclined to settle the issue. Accordingly, as there is possibility of settlement between the parties, both learned counsel for appellants as well as respondents prayed to refer the matter for mediation.

2. Considering the fact that the 2nd appellant is now aged about 80 years and since both parties are inclined to settle the issue, there is possibility of settlement between them, this Court is inclined to refer the matter for mediation to Mediation and Conciliation Centre, Ootacamund. The Mediation and Conciliation Centre is directed to issue notice to both parties and to take up the matter for not less than three hearings. Both the
