

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

WEB COPY

Today, when the matters were taken up for hearing, both the learned counsel for revision petitioner and learned counsel for respondents 1,3 and 4 appeared. The 4th respondent appeared in person.

2. The learned counsel for 1st respondent filed his counter objections. He is directed to serve copies to other side counsels.

3. The appearance of 4th respondent is ordered to be dispensed with.

4. The learned counsel for revision petitioner seeks time. Considering his request, post the matters on 22.04.2026 for final arguments.

08.04.2026

rpp