When the matter is taken up for hearing today, a Memo is filed by the learned counsel for the appellant, which reads as follows:-

The counsels for the appellant in the above said CMA humbly submit as follows:-

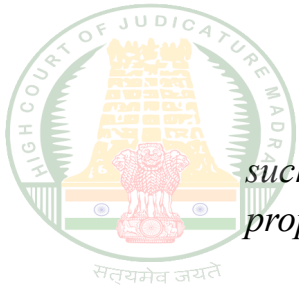

1. It is humbly submitted that the above said CMA has been filed by the appellant herein against the dismissal of his petition for divorce by order dated 01.10.2018 in IDOP No.115 of 2016 on the file of the Family Court at Chengalpattu.

2. It is humble submitted that subsequently the said CMA was referred to mediation and both parties had compromised before the mediation centre, thereby the appellant herein had deposited a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) in to "HDFC Deposit Account" in favour of their minor child. Thereafter, the appellant had not turned before the mediation centre for further proceedings / compliance.

3. It is humbly submitted that thereafter, the appellant herein failed to response his counsels' phone calls and also ignored the reminder of his counsel which sent through Whatsapp – Voice note.

4. It is humbly submitted that due to said non communication of the appellant herein, his counsels are unable to place the submissions of the appellant before this Hon'ble Court. Hence, except no other alternative, the counsels of the said appellant have come forward to withdraw the vakalat which was filed for the appellant. Hence this memo.

It is therefore humble prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to record this memo and permit the counsels for appellant to withdraw their Vakalat which was filed for appellant herein and pass such further or other orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case and thus render justice.
