ORDER

A Report had been filed by the learned Administrator seeking for appropriate directions to remove the board put up by one Radhakrishnan and also for a direction to direct the said Radhakrishnan to vacate the room occupied by him. It is to be noted that the said Radhakrishnan had filed an impleading application in this instant suit, which has also been allowed by this Court today. The said Radhakrishnan had claimed that in AGM conducted on 17.07.2024, he has been appointed as the President of the Sangam and pursuant to which he had also put up a board claiming himself to be the President of the College. There is a dispute with regard to the management of the Hospital and the Sangam.

2. This Court in its order dated 06.12.2024, recording its dissatisfaction in the way in which the said Radhakrishnan had addressed the Court appointed Administrator and the manner in which the General Body of the Sangam had attempted to supersede the order of this Court, directed the learned Administrator appointed by this Court to discharge his as directed by this Court. By a further order dated 05.02.2025, this Court had permitted the learned Administrator to continue to hold Office and further permitted him to discharge his functions as a representative of the Sangam as well as its Administrator.

3. Mr.C.K.M.Appaji, learned counsel appearing for the said Radhakrishnan would rely upon an earlier Report filed by the learned Administrator in the earlier suit, wherein, also a possession of one of the room by him has been recorded. He would claim that his predecessor had founded the College and the Sangam and they have been in possession of the said office room as the office bearer of the Association. Therefore, he has a right to continue in possession of the said room. He would further submit that he is only carrying on the services to the public by providing Siddha medicines to his patients. He would further submit that since the learned Administrator is directed to continue in office by orders of this Court, he had also removed the board put up by others. He would also submit that there is no necessity to issue a direction calling upon him to vacate the room.

4. Admittedly, the said room which is in possession to the said Radhakrishnan forms part of the building where the College is situated. Even though, he would assert his pos the said room from his predecessors in interest who are the founders of the College, it is to be noted that such member holding to the possession of the said room only held it as an office bearer of the said Sangam and the persons who are in the management of the College. Radhakrishnan is neither an office bearer of the Sangam or has been regularly appointed by the College for giving treatment to the patients approaching the Hospital and College for treatment. Further, he had claimed to be the President of the Sangam which had been deprecated by this Court in the order dated 06.12.2024.

5. In such view of the matter, the said Radhakrishnan who had been newly impleaded as a defendant in the suit is directed to vacate and handover the possession of the room in his possession on or before 15.05.2025.

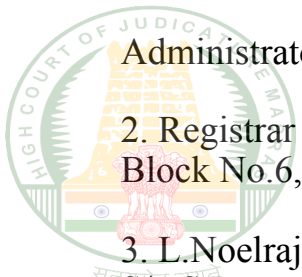

List the matter on 05.06.2025.
