ORDER

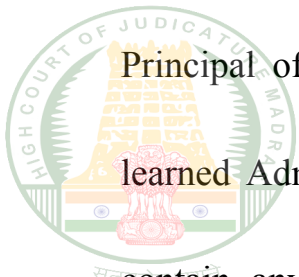

There is no representation for the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the plaintiff in C.S.No.150 of 2024.

2.Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, it has been brought to the notice of this Court that pursuant to the order dated 09.07.2025, Mr.T.Radhakrishanan, who has been impleaded as a party-defendant in C.S.No.150 of 2024 had handed over the keys to the Principal of the College. The Principal of the College had also addressed a the learned Administrator indicating that the possession of the room was taken which do not contain any materials including the Registers, but, however, Mr.T.Radhakrishanan had circulated a letter to the learned Administrator indicating that the old records relating to the Trust and other objects are there.

3.The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the learned Administrator would place on record that the inventory of the room has been taken and a photograph of the room would show that the said room does not contain any articles. The said statement is also taken on record. In view that the room has come to the possession of the Institution, no further orders are required to be made and the explanation sought for from the Station House Officer shall also stand dispensed with.

4.Registry is directed to issue summons to the defendant in the transposed suit in C.S.No.56 of 2024. The learned counsel for the plaintiff is also permitted to take private summons.

5.For completion of pleadings, list the matter on 25.08.2025.
