ORDER

Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, both sides counsels present and represented that PW1 was already cross examined and the case is posted for examination of plaintiffs' side further witnesses. However, since the Court has fixed a time limit for completing the examination of witnesses, learned Master has sent the matter back to this Court.

2.The notes paper shows that PW1 cross examination was not completed, however, both parties admit that PW1 cross examination was already completed and now the plaintiffs want to examine their side further witnesses. Therefore, the matter is referred back to learned Master for recording further PWs and for examination of defendants side witnesses.

3.Learned Master is directed to complete the trial as early as possible without granting adjournments beyond 3 days.
