Solemnly Affirmed:

Q: Did you challenge the settlement deed executed by your father in favour of 3rd defendant dated 08.06.2012 under Ex.P19 in any court?

A: We have not filed any suit challenging in Ex.P19.

Q: Did you challenge the alienation made by the 3rd defendant in respect of the property situated at No.93, Kottakuppam Village, comprised Survey No.30/3A measuring 84 cents and thereabout?

A: I have challenged it in the present suit.

Q: Plaint is shown to the witness and questioned regarding the prayers containing in the suit?

A: We have not challenged.

Q: Did you challenge the settlement deed dated 28.05.2018 executed by your father in favour of your brother K.Ramesh marked as Ex.P22 situated at Pandikavaloor?

A: We have not challenged it.

Time: 01.10 P.M.

Time: 03.50 P.M.

Q: Is it correct to state that there is no challenge to the settlement deed dated 28.05.2013 executed by the 2nd defendant in favour 6th defendant namely Ritish marked as Ex.P23?

A: The settlement deed was executed after the filing of the suit. So we did not challenged it.

Q: Kindly look into your plaint. What is the date of presentation found on the docket ?

A: Presented on 11.07.2013.

Q: Your suit is filed in July 2013 but the settlement deed is dated May 2013 therefore before filing of suit the settlement deed was executed?

A: I initiated the proceedings after issuance of legal notice under Ex.P21 before I filed the suit the execution of settlement deed took place.

Q: Can you deny that your father has mentioned about a koorchit in his written statement to which you have also filed a reply statement?

A: I cannot deny.

Q: Can you tell this Hon'ble Court who are all Kuppusamy Naidu, Rajagopal and Deenadayal Naidu?

A: My paternal grandfather is Rajagopal and his brothers are Kuppusamy Naidu and Deenadayal Naidu.

Q: Can you deny that a koorchit was entered into on 26.02.1971 between Kuppusamy Naidu, Rajagopal and Deenadayal Naidu and the schedule A, B and C contain therein was divided amongst themselves?

A: Yes. The properties were divided as per the koorchit, but I do not remember whether the copy of koorchit was given to the plaintiffs. (All the questions are related to the koorchit dt.26.02.1971 is objected by the counsel for the plaintiff since the koorchit has not been marked as an exhibit).

Q: Can you deny the fact that the properties that were divided among the brothers in 1971 was dealt with by Madhavan Naidu in 2006?

A: I do not remember the exact year of sale, but it has been sold.

Q: Upon sale of the above property did each of the daughters get Rs.20 Lakhs as cash?

A: We did not receive Rs.20 lakhs. Madhavan Naidu purchased a house in Mogappair in his name which was settled in the name of Ritish on the same day at 3 p.m.

Q: I put it to you that Madhavan Naidu has love and affection towards his daughters just like he had affection towards his son, 3rd defendant herein.

A: The daughters had affection and love towards the father, but the father did not reciprocate the same.

Q: I put it to you that your mother does not have any enmity or ill will towards you or the other daughters.

A: No my mother does not have any ill will towards us.

Q: When did your grandfather Rajagopala Naidu die?

A: I think he died in the year 1989.

Q: On what basis have you filed the present suit seeking for 1/5th share in the suit properties that have been already been partitioned between Rajagopala Naidu and his brothers and fell to the share of Madhavan Naidu exclusively?

A: It is ancestral property therefore we are seeking a share in the same.

Q: When did you get married?

A: I got married in 1982.

Q: What about the other sisters?

A: I do not remember exact year, last time I have deposed that they got married in 1976 and 1980 respectively.

Q: I put it to you that after you got married in 1982 during the life time of Rajagopala Naidu before his demise in 1989 the properties were divided by between Rajagopal Naidu, Madhavan Naidu and Ramesh.

A: We have a right over the properties, so we filed the suit.

Q: In as much as your grandfather died in 1989 why did you wait till July 2013 for filing the present suit if you actually had a right?

A: We were asking our father for our share but since we did not get it, I filed the present suit.

Q: Have you stated about the joint family status and that you have been asking your father for division of the properties and he has been delaying it in your cause of action pleaded in the plaint in para-20 ?

A: We have stated so far in the cause of action. My father instructed us to filed the suit.

Q: Is it correct to state that you have not pleaded so in the plaint but for the purpose of this case now you are falsely deposing?

A: I deny, I am falsely deposing.

Q: Who is been remitting the taxes payable in respective properties in whose name?

A: Since the properties are stands in their names taxes are been remitted by those persons.

Q: Can you deny the suggestion that the 3rd defendant has availed agricultural loans for carrying out agricultural operations and he is cultivating lands by engaging the services of agricultural labour?

A: I cannot deny. Since they are in possession and enjoyment of the lands, consequently they are remitting the taxes and availing the loans and benefit of the income from the lands and enjoying the same.
