ORDER

Consequent to the earlier order dated 29.08.2025 made in O.A. Nos. 132 and 133 of 2025, this Court considers it appropriate to appoint a Commissioner to arrive at the calculation, after issuing notice to both parties and obtaining the relevant particulars from them, with regard to the actual amount payable by the defendants to the plaintiff towards the 1/7th share in the theatre complex and Item No.5 of the suit property. Accordingly,

(a) Ms.D.Annibesant, B.A., B.L., M.L., Advocate, having Offi. residence at No.22, Mannadi Street, Villivakkam, Chennai-600 049 (Enrollment No.1583/2001 & Mobile No.9840405301), is appointed as Advocate Commissioner to arrive at a calculation after giving notice to both parties and after seeking relevant particulars from the parties with regard to the actual amount that should be paid by the defendants to the plaintiff towards 1/7 the share of the theatre complex and the 5th item of the suit schedule properties as specified to the judges summons.

(b) The initial remuneration of the Advocate Commissioner is fixed at Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen thousand only), which shall be borne by the parties equally.

(d) The learned Advocate Commissioner, before causing inspection, shall duly give notice to the parties concerned as well as the learned counsels representing the parties and fix the time for her visit and inspection of the schedule properties.

(e) The learned Advocate Commissioner shall be paid the said initial remuneration immediately on receipt of the notice from the learned Advocate Commissioner on her visit and inspection of the schedule properties, promptly.
