O.A.Nos. 132 & 133 of 2015

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The learned counsel for the plaintiff is present and stated that the valuation given by the valuer appointed by the Court is not to their satisfaction.

2. The plaintiff may give his assessment of the value of the property which need not be the highest market value but rather an appropriate base value which could be kept as an upset price and any purchaser will have to bid over and above that particular upset price.

3. For giving the value of the building as assessed by the plaintiff, call the matter on 01.07.2025.
