Second Appeal No.827 of 2012

N.ANAND VENKATESH, J.,

It is seen from the office note that the notices that were sent to the respondents has been repeatedly returned with an endorsement “no such person” and “door locked”. Hence, this Court is satisfied that the appellant can be permitted to take substituted service on the respondents.

2.In view of the above, the substituted service shall be effected by making a publication in Malai Malar newspaper on or before 07.03.2022 and the notice shall be returnable by 14.03.2022.

3.Post this case under the caption “for filing affidavit of service” on 14.03.2022.
