For Plaintiffs : Mr.J.Ravikumar

ORDER

Today, when the matter is taken up for consideration, both sides' counsels are present.

2. The learned counsel for the plaintiff would submit that at the time of marking of documents, due to objections made by the learned counsel for the applicant, the matter is referred to this court. This Court also perused the records with objections made before to this Court to mark the documents. It is the duty of the Master to mark the documents after recording the objections by the other side. Therefore, the learned Master is directed to record the evidence after recording objection and the learned counsel for the defendant submitted that already on 28.04.2022 in the cause list, D1 to D4 were shown as set ex-parte.

3. The Registry is directed to verify and print the correct address of the parties in the cause list and post the matter before the learned Master on 24.02.2026 for continuation of evidence.
