ORDER

The present writ petition is filed challenging the order of the 3rd respondent dated 12.01.2021. The said order was the subject matter of challenge by way of revision under Section 153 of the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act, 1983, (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”) before the Registrar.

2. During the pendency of the writ petition, a revision petition No.2 of 2021 was disposed of vide order dated 28.04.2022 by the 4th respondent whereby the petitioner was dismissed from service for participating in a Local Body Election.

3. Learned counsel for respondents would raise a preliminary objection submitting that the writ petition ought not be entertained inasmuch as the petitioner having availed statutory remedy by way of revision, ought to pursue the remedies available under the statute. He would submit that Section 153 of the Act provides for two stages of revision and would place reliance on a decision of this Court in W.P.No.757 of 2019 dated 05.12.2025, wherein it was held as under, after extracting Section 153 of the Act:

“22. A reading of the aforesaid Section would show that the legislature intended to confer power on Government to review orders passed by ‘Registrar’ either by taking up on their own or on an application filed. This would be evident from the provision, as wherever the term ‘Registrar’ is mentioned the same is followed by the word ‘Government’ and the said words being separated/disjuncted by use of term like ‘or’ and ‘and’. This shows that the said Section provides for two stages of revision. The first stage of revision being to the ‘Registrar’ as defined under Section 2 (23) of the Act, 1983. The second stage of revision is against the order of Registrar, to the Government either on their own motion or an application. The only exception provided under the Section is in respect of matters for which appeal to the Tribunal is provided under Section 152(1) Act, 1983.”

4. On this being pointed out, learned counsel for petitioner would submit that they may be granted liberty to file a revision within a period of two weeks and also would further submit that inasmuch as the petitioner is about 58 years presently, the same may be disposed of as expeditiously as possible.

5. In that view of the matter, the writ petition stands disposed of granting liberty to the petitioner to file a further revision under Section 153 of the Act within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If any such revision is filed by the petitioner within the stipulated period, the same shall be admitted and entertained without reference to limitation and subject to the petitioner complying with all other conditions relating to revision. The respondents shall dispose of the revision petition, if any filed by the petitioner as expeditiously as possible preferable within a period of three months. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
