2.Learned counsel for the defendants would submit that the suit had been converted to a regular Suit, but, however, the plaint does not firstly comply with the conditions prescribed under Order XXXVII nor has the plaintiff amended the suit to be tried as a regular Suit. Hence, the plaintiff should be directed to amend the plaint accordingly.

3.This Court is of the considered view that this Court cannot direct a party to amend the pleadings. It is for the respective parties to stand or fall on their pleadings. In such view of the matter, I do not propose to entertain the claim made by the learned counsel appearing for the defendant.

4.List the matter before the learned Additional Master I for recording of evidence on 07.04.2025.
