ORDER

Pursuant to order dated 10.04.2026, brief preliminary responses were received from the two experts appointed in terms of paragraph No.5.3 of the above mentioned order. KPMG Forensics has also indicated the fee payable. In view of objections raised by the first defendant to the fee estimate, the plaintiff has agreed to bear the entire fees of KPMG Forensics.

2. Memorandum dated 30.04.2026 was filed by the first defendant enclosing proof for payment of initial remuneration. Said memo is taken on record.

3. Both sets of experts have requested that mandate be defined clearly.

4. Learned counsel for the first defendant submits that it would be appropriate that an Advocate Commissioner be appointed to act as an intermediary between the parties and experts.

5. Considering the aforesaid, the following directions are issued:

5.1 Ms.Chandini Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, No.53, Wellington Estate, 1st Floor, Unit 1-B, Ethiraj Salai, Egmore, Chennai – 600 008 (Mobile No.8397056352; e-mail: chandini@chamber28.com) is appointed as Commissioner. As initial remuneration, the parties are directed to pay a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- each to the Commissioner;

5.2 The mandate of the experts is as under:

(i) Compare version of the plaintiff's algorithms/software installed on the private cloud hosted by the third defendant with the algorithms/software of the first defendant;

(ii) Take all necessary measures to deactivate the algorithms/software of the plaintiff, which has been installed on the private cloud hosted by the third defendant;

(iii) Examine the information set out in the judge's summons in O.A.No.203 of 2026 and determine whether said information is necessary to carry out the assignment.

5.3 If any other or further information is necessary to fulfil the above mandate, the experts are requested to communicate the same to the parties through the Advocate Commissioner. Upon receipt of such request from the Advocate Commissioner, parties are directed to comply with such request by providing such information to the experts through the Advocate Commissioner;

5.4 In order to avoid any allegation of bias, the experts are requested to route all communications through the Advocate Commissioner;

5.5 The initial remuneration of the experts has already been paid by both parties;

5.6 Once Indian Institute of Technology, Madras is in a position to indicate the fee payable, the same shall be communicated through the Advocate Commissioner to the Court.

6. Parties and experts are granted leave to apply in case of any difficulties in fulfilling the above mandate.

7. List on 15.06.2026 for an update on the progress.
