W.P.No.9654 of 2023

M.DHANDAPANI, J.

It is the case of the petitioner that the first respondent was an officer of the petitioner's bank and the Bank lodged a complaint to the CBI against the first respondent and others for Criminal Breach of Trust, cheating, forgery, misappropriation and fraudulently debited from various savings accounts. The CBI preferred criminal revision petition against the first respondent and others and the same is pending before the Delhi High Court. Thereafter, the first respondent submitted an application under RTI Act before the original authority and appellate authority seeking to furnish the documents regarding the sanction of prosecution. Further, the appeals were dismissed. Aggrieved over the same, the first respondent preferred two second appeals before the second respondent, pursuant to which the second respondent allowed the second appeals vide impugned common orders dated 28.12.2022 and directed the first petitioner to provide information regarding sanction of prosecution to the appellant therein. Challenging the same the present writ petition has been filed.

2. Considering the facts, there shall be an order of interim stay. Notice to the respondents returnable in two weeks. Post the matter after two weeks i.e., 13.04.2023.
