The petitioner herein is the daughter of the second respondent, who now challenges the settlement deed dated 17.02.2011 executed by her father, which later came to be cancelled by the first respondent, on a complaint filed by the the second respondent under Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007.

2. The learned counsel now submits that her mother, who deserted her father long time before, is now residing with her father, the second respondent and this petitioner who is taking care of the second respondent, is also willing to maintain her mother.

3. This Court is only keen to ascertain whether the statement made on behalf of the petitioner be verified. This is so because, even though the second respondent was served, he has not appeared before the Court. This Court, therefore directs the first respondent to file a report if the second respondent resides with the petitioner and how well he is being taken care of.
