2. We have heard learned counsels for petitioners and learned counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu for respondents.

3.The detenus, are co-accused in Crime No.128/2025, registered for offences under Sections 332 (a), 103 & 311 BNS, 2023. The learned counsels appearing for the petitioners had raised a common ground in both the petitions and therefore, we are passing a common order.

4. The learned counsels submitted that both the detenus had not filed any bail application, which has been recorded by the detaining authority in the grounds of detention. However, the detaining authority had stated that there is a real possibility of the detenus filing a bail application in future and be released on bail, which is without any basis.

5.We have perused the grounds of detention in both the cases and found that in both the cases, the detenus had not filed any bail application. However, the satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority that the detenus are likely to be released on bail and indulge in similar activities is not based on any material admittedly. The observation of the detaining authority that the detenus are likely to file a bail application is his mere Ipsi Dixit. Therefore, the satisfaction of the detaining authority that the detenus are likely to be released on bail is vitiated.

Hence, the detention orders are liable to be quashed.

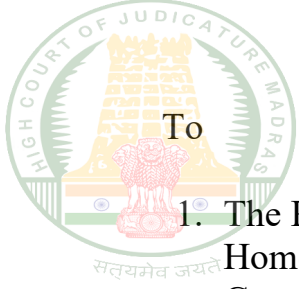

6. In light of the aforesaid discussion, these Habeas Corpus Petitions are allowed and the Detention Order passed by the second respondent in Cr.M.P.No.25/Goonda/2025 C1 and Cr.M.P.No.26/Goonda/2025 C1 dated 12.06.2025 are set aside.

7. The detenus, viz., Aachiappan, S/o.Palani, aged 47 years and the Madeshwaran alias Madhu, S/o.Natarajan, aged 53 years, who are now confined in Central Prison, Coimbatore, are hereby directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless their presence is required in connection with any other case.
