ORDER

The plaintiffs assert that they are the co-producers of the cinematograph film “DHURANDHAR’. The suit was instituted for remedies in respect of alleged copyright infringement primarily by sale of merchandise using copyright material from the film. These applications have been filed seeking interim relief to restrain such acts of infringement.

2. Learned counsel for the plaintiffs invited my attention to screenshots of images of infringing products being sold through the market places and e-commerce websites operated by the defendants.

3. Upon examining the same, a strong prima facie case of unauthorised sale of merchandise bearing the infringing content is made out. Therefore, orders of ad interim injunction as prayed for are granted until the next date of hearing. The applicants/plaintiff shall comply with Order XXXIX Rule 3 of the C.P.C.

4. Issue notice to the respondents in all applications returnable on 15.04.2026. Private notice is also permitted.

5. List the matter on 15.04.2026.
