Cross Examination of PW1 by Mr.Krishna Ravindran, Learned counsel for the Defendant 1.

Solemnly Affirmed:

Q22: I put it to you that you are not a member of the family trust and you have never signed in the family trust and hence you are not entitled for any relief claimed by you out of the family trust.

A: I deny it. The statement is incorrect. I am very much part of the family trust and I am entitled to my share where I sought the relief.

Q23: You have made various averments and details of the family trust in the plaint and the proof affidavit. I put it to you that when you have not produced the trust deed before this Hon'ble court, your statements regarding the same are incorrect.

A: I deny that.

Q24: In your response to Q10, you have stated that you have asked your mother regarding partition of the property. Have you filed any document before this Hon'ble Court to substantiate your statement?

A: No. I have not produced.

Q25: Can you tell this Hon'ble Court what steps did you take to determine the existence or non-existence of the family trust?

A: I have asked my parents and obtained a copy of the trust deed and they affirmed the same as did my brother.

Q26: Have you filed any document before this Hon'ble Court to substantiate your above statement?

A: Yes, the letters that my brother and myself had jointly written to my father and my father's responses.

Q27: Ex.P6, P7, P8 are shown to the witness. Are these the letters you wrote to your father?

A: Yes, we jointly wrote.

Q28: Are these the originals of those letters?

A: Yes.

Q29: When you have sent these letters to your father, how do you have the originals of the said letters with you?

A: One copy we retained and the other one we sent for any kind of communication.

Q30: Is there any acknowledgment from your father proving the receipt of Ex.P7 and Ex.P8?

A: His replies to us.

Q31: Ex.P9 is shown to the witness. Is this the reply you are talking about?

A: It is one of the reply.

Q32: Are there any other replies from your father which you have filed before this court?

A: Yes, I filed, they have not marked, since we are not having the original.

Q33: In Ex.P9, the reply sent by your father, he has acknowledged the receipt of Ex.P8 alone and not the other two letters. Hence I put it to you that Ex.P6 and Ex.P7 were never sent and they are not valid documents.

A: It is incorrect. I deny that. Because the Ex.P8, letter mention the previous letters as well.

Q34: In Ex.P9, is it correct to state that your father has acknowledged the existence of the trust and has asked you both to wait for the propriate time?

A: He has acknowledged for the partition and had asked us to wait.

Q35: He has further stated that the 1st defendant your mother, being a permanent trustee is not co-operating to dissolve the trust. Is it correct?

A: It is incorrect. He has stated that she is not co-operating in the trust matters.

Q36: Was there any other trust matter other than dissolution of trust pending at the relevant point of time?

A: The partition of the trust was pending as the trust had already ended.

Q37: Witness is shown para 2 of the proof affidavit, you have incorporated a tabular column in the proof affidavit which is incomplete and incorrect. Can you clarify?

A: Certain numbers have been missed out, it should be as per the original trust.

Q38: I put it to you that since you are not aware of the actual provisions of the trust you have not been able to provide the necessary information.

A: It is incorrect.

Q39: Are you aware of any activity undertaken by the Anuradha Family Trust?

A: Yes, until my father was alive, he used to update us at intervals.

Q40: Can you name some of the activities regarding which your father was intimating?

A: Yes, regarding the wells, the farm and trees etc.,

Q41: Is it correct to state that the trust did not carry on any activity to generate income to maintain the trust?

A: I do not know.

Q42: Are you aware of the expenses involved in maintaining the trust properties?

A: Only those expenses mentioned by my father.

Q43: Have you ever contributed towards the expenses of the trust?

A: Many times when it was required, I have contributed.

Q44: Have you filed any documentary evidence before this Hon'ble court to prove your contribution in the trust?

A: No.

Q45: In para 6 of the proof affidavit, you have stated that out of the trust income your late father as managing trustee had purchased the following properties I put it to you that in light of the above statement regarding the trust income the said statement is false and incorrect.

A: It is what my father had informed me along with my brother. I have stated the same.

Q46: Is it correct to infer that all your statements in the proof affidavit regarding the family trust are hearsay from what you have heard from your father?

A: It is incorrect that all statements are just hearsay.

Q47: In para 7 of your proof affidavit, you have stated that the trust expired on 26.05.2002. whereas in Ex.P7 and Ex.P8, you have requested your father to terminate the trust immediately. Which of the statements are correct?

A: The trust expired on 26.05.2002 but there was no proper documentation and partition at the time of expiry. So my brother and myself requested my father to do the same.

Q48: Can you tell this Hon'ble court whether your father alone could terminate the trust and partition the property?

A: As Managing Trustee he was the one who had to take steps to do this.

Q49: Are you aware of your father taking any steps to terminate the trust after your request?

A: Only those he has mentioned in his reply, Ex.P9.

Q50: I put it to you that you were pressurising your father to terminate the trust without the knowledge of the 1st defendant and that you never approached the 1st defendant for the termination of the trust.

A: It is incorrect and I deny the same.

Q51: Have you ever attended any of the trust meetings of the Anuradha Family Trust?

A: No.

Cross Examination of PW1 by Mr.Krishna Ravindran, Learned counsel for the Defendant 1.

Solemnly Affirmed:

Q52: Are you aware of the sale of any portion of the properties owned by the Anuradha Family Trust?

A: Yes. I am aware of some sale.

Q53: A document is shown to the witness. Is this the sale deed selling the portion of the property belonging to the trust at Sathankuppam Village?

A: I am not aware, if this is the exact sale.

Q54: Witness is shown Doc.No.3520 dated 14.05.2008 registered at Tiruporur SRO. Have you signed as a witness in the said sale deed?

A: Yes, the signature is mine, I have only signed as a witness. The signature of the witness as the second witness therein page no.24 in Doc.No.3520 dated 14.05.2008 is marked as Ex.D1.

Q55: Witness is shown the resolution dated 07.05.2008 of the Anuradha Family Trust (AFT). Is this the resolution authorising the sale of the said property and have you signed in the said resolution?

A: I am unaware.

Q56: You are unaware of the document or the sale transaction itself?

A: I am unaware of the document.

Q57: Does that mean you were aware of the sale transaction wherein you have signed as a witness in Doc.No.3520/2008?

A: I only signed as a witness. I need not know the contents.

Q58: Can you tell this court what is your educational qualification?

A: I am a MBA Graduate.

Q59: Having done a Post Graduate Degree, Are you not aware of the contents of the document on which you have affixed your signature as a witness?

A: It is my wish to choose to know or not.

Q60: In this case, Do you mean to say that you choose not to know the contents of the document in which you have affixed your signature?

A: Yes, I choose only to be a witness.

Q61: Can you tell this Hon'ble Court, whether you were the Trustee in AFT during the said sale in the year 2008?

A: I was only a beneficiary throughout in AFT.

Q62: Do you mean to say that you were never a trustee in the AFT?

A: I was always a beneficiary in the trust.

Q63: In your answer to Q20, you have stated that you are a member and a trustee of the AFT. Which is correct?

A: Yes, I am a member, a beneficiary in the Trust. I am not a Trustee.

Q64: Is it correct to state that you did not receive any portion of the money that was obtained from the above mentioned sale of the trust property?

A: No. I have not received any monies of any sale.

Q65: Are you aware of any other sale of trust property?

A: No.

Q66: I put it to you that you are not a beneficiary under the AFT and that is why you have not been paid any share out of the sale proceeds in the above mentioned sale.

A: It is incorrect.

Q67: Are you aware of the Senthil Charitable Trust (for short: SCT)?

A: Only that it is mentioned in the AFT.

Q68: Do you know that a part of the sale consideration from the above mentioned sale vide Doc.No.3520/2008 was distributed to SCT?

A: I am unaware.

Q69: According to you, Does the AFT exist as of today?

A: No. The trust has ended.

Q70: Can you tell when the trust was terminated?

A: The trust came to an end in 2002 as per the Trust Deed.

Q71: I put it to you that when you claim that you were not a Trustee, how are you capable of making such statement when the trust is still in existence as it was duly extended by the Trustees.

A: Because the suit was jointly filed along with my brother who was a Trustee and the same was not denied by my father who was the Managing Trustee.

Q72: Is it correct to state that from 2002 to 2015 though the trust was not in existence according to you, you took no steps other than writing letters to your father who was living in the same house?

A: We were periodically asking our father for the same, other than writing letters.

Q73: Did you ever inform your father and the 1st defendant (mother) about the Exparte Preliminary Decree dated 02.08.2017 initially obtained by you in the present suit?

A: The Preliminary Decree was obtained by both me and the 2nd defendant (then plaintiff) jointly. The same was informed by me orally to both of them.

Cross Examination of PW1 by Mr.Krishna Ravindran, Learned counsel
for the Defendant 1.

Solemnly Affirmed:

Q74: Can you tell what is the main prayer you have sought for in the present suit as per the amended plaint?

A: For partitioning the AF Trust properties as the trust has ended and to give my share as per the Trust Deed which was then 25% and now 33%.

Q75: Can you tell where in the Trust Deed of the AF trust has it been mentioned that you are entitled for 25% of the assets of the trust?

A: The Trust Deed mentions 15% for me and 10% for my husband and if any reason my husband's portion has not been given to him, the same has to be given him, so this makes it 25%.

Q76: Can you state your present marital status?

A: Married.

Q77: So, Is your husband party to the present suit?

A: The original suit was filed in 2015 and I was single.

Q78: Item no.1 of the schedule property to the suit is an apartment in which the 1st defendant is residing in. Are you seeking partition of the said property also?

A: I am seeking partition in all the properties/assets owned by AF trust.

Q79: I put it to you that this property was specifically allotted to the 1st defendant and that she has been residing for the past 20 years and that you are not entitled to claim partition of the said property or any property of AF trust.

A: I deny the same. I am entitled to my share in all the properties that are owned by AF trust as per the Trust Deed.

Q80: Do you know who are all the beneficiaries of the AF trust?

A: Yes. As per the original Trust Deed, my father, my mother, my brother, myself, would be husband of Shanmugapriya (myself), would be wife of Senthil Kumaran (my brother) and Senthil Charitable Trust.

Q81: Even according to you when there are so many beneficiaries to the AF trust, how do you say you are entitled to 1/3rd of the assets of the trust?

A: I have already mentioned in my plaint how there are only 4 beneficiaries which is now 3 after my father's demise.

Q82: I put it to you that you are not even aware of the provisions of the AF trust and have made an unsustainable claim for which you are not entitled to.

A: I deny this.

Q83: I put it to you that you are not aware of the very existence of the AF trust and have participated in the sale of properties without claiming any share and the amount received, and it clearly shows that your averments in the plaint and proof affidavit are untrue and unsustainable and that you are well aware that you are not entitled for any share in the assets of the AF trust.

A: I deny this.

for the Defendant 2.

Solemnly Affirmed:

Q84: Witness is shown Original Deed of Declaration of Anuradha
Family Trust Deed dated 27.05.1982. Do you agree this is the Trust
Deed that you have spoken of in the plaint?

A: I have to go through the whole document.

Q85: Do you agree that your parents and your brother (Defendant
2) were the only permanent Trustees of the AFT?

A: My father and mother were the original permanent Trustees.

Q86: Do you deny that your brother is a permanent Trustee of the trust?

A: My brother is also a Trustee in the Trust.

Q87: You claim your rights in the AFT based on the Anuradha Family Trust Deed dated 27.05.1982. Is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q88: Will it be correct in stating that the AFT is a private trust and it is solely governed by the terms of the Trust Deed?

A: Yes.

Q89: Does the Trust Deed dated 27.05.1982 contain any riders or conditions regarding ceasure of beneficiaries shares or benefit under the deed?

A: It is whatever is stated in the Trust Deed.

Q90: Then you do agree that as per clause 12 of the Trust Deed dated 27.05.1982, the share of benefit payable to you and the would be husband was to cease from the end of the account year in which the marriage takes place and that such share of benefit payable to you and your husband was to be taken by the surviving beneficiary equally. What do you say?

A: We have mentioned the relevant clauses already in the plaint.

Q91: Witness is shown para 5 of the plaint. Have you stated about the embargo contained in clause 12 of the Trust Deed as regards holding the beneficiary status under the Trust?

A: We have filed the Trust Deed and marked the Trust Deed, when me and my brother filed the original plaint and therefore, all the clauses are anyway contained in it.

Q92: I put it to you that you have intentionally failed to disclose or justify your beneficiary status considering the loss of beneficiary status stipulated in clause 12 of the deed on solemnising your marriage and thus have concealed vital facts and you have approached the court with unclean hands and you are not entitled for any of the reliefs sought for in this suit by you. What do you say?

A: I deny the same.

Q93: Please tell us the date you solemnised your 1st marriage?

A: 07.02.2001.

Q94: I put it to you that since you were married on 07.02.2001, you ceased your share of benefit in the Trust from the end of the accounting year i.e., 31.03.2021. What do you say?

A: I deny.

Q95: Does the Trust Deed contain such disclaimer of beneficiary status for any other member of the Trust?

A: I do not know.

Q96: Does the Trust Deed dated 27.05.1982 contain a clause for your reinstatement as a beneficiary of the Trust in the event of dissolution of marriage?

A: I am not aware.

Q97: Since you claim the suit relief based on the clause stipulated in the AFT Deed and since you claim ignorance to the clauses stipulated therein. I put it to you that you are not aware of your entitlement of beneficiary under the Trust and are only attempting to unjustly enrich yourself. What do you say?

A: The suit relief was jointly sought by me and my brother, who was a Trustee in the AFT and our beneficiary status was never denied by the Managing Trustee, my father.

Q98: Is it your case that your basis for claiming yourself as a beneficiary under the Trust currently, is only based on your brother's and father's alleged actions and words and that you independently do not have any knowledge of your beneficiary status under the trust.

A: My beneficiary status in the trust was affirmed by the fact that my brother, who was a Trustee filed this suit jointly with me and that my father, the Managing Trustee accepted it, in his replies.

Q99: What 'acceptance' are you referring to in the above answers of yours. Kindly elaborate?

A: The acceptance that as per the Trust Deed, I am the beneficiary and we are entitled to the share of the Trust sought by us.

Q100: Where and when was this “acceptance” allegedly made?

A: In the joint plaint filed by us.

Q101: You have stated the alleged acceptance has been made by the Managing Trustee, your father, where and when was it stated. Have you filed any proof for the same?

A: My father's replies to both (me and my brother)

Q102: All exhibits are shown to the witness. Please show where the acceptance of your beneficiary status has been made?

A: The fact that he replied to both of us in his replies.

Q103: Is the 2nd defendant currently a co-plaintiff to the suit seeking for the relief that you claimed in the suit?

A: No. He has transposed himself.

Q104: Please refer to para 3 of your plaint, wherein you have extracted the list of beneficiaries as per clause 7 of the Deed. Is it true that the Trustees of Senthil Charitable Trust as per clause 7 are entitled to 5% of the benefit under the Trust?

A: Yes, as per the original Trust Deed.

Q105: Witness is shown original Deed of Declaration of Senthil Charitable Trust dated 21.05.1982. Can you conform if this is the Deed of Senthil Charitable Trust?

A: I am not aware of it.

Q106: You admit that the 2nd defendant's wife Mrs.Zuleika Nazneen is a beneficiary under the AFT Deed. Is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q107: Have you made her a party to the suit proceedings?

A: My brother wanted to partition the suit properties, with his and his wife's share jointly represented.

Q108: I put it to you that this suit is bad for non-joinder of necessary parties. What do you say?

A: I deny.

Q109: At the time of institution of the suit, Is it true that your brother had good relationship with you and had complete faith in your words and actions?

A: We both had complete faith in each others words and actions and therefore, filed the suit together.

Q110: I put it to you that since you started acting against the interest of the family and refused to co-operate in running the family business. Did your brother become vary of your misdeeds and exploitation of his trust and faith in you. What do you say?

A: I deny and the question is completely irrelevant to the AFT suit filed by us.

Q111: If you claim, you were never a Trustee in the AFT and never a part of the Board of the Trust and how are you aware that the Trust has been extended or not?

A: My brother who was a Trustee has taken the stand that the Trust was never extended after it ended in 2002 in the plaint filed by both of us and my father, who was the Managing Trustee never denied that the Trust has ended in his communication.

Q112: I put it to you that your assertion of the Trusts determination/expiration as stated in the plaint is based on the hearsay and assumptions and you otherwise do not have any knowledge of the status of the Trust. What do you say?

A: False. It is based on the Trust Deed and as affirmed by the Trustee and Managing Trustee.

Q113: Witness is shown AFT Resolution dated 06.03.2002 for extending the duration of the Trust for the period of 10 years. Why have you not stated before the court that you are a signatory to the resolution for the extension of the Trust and that you had signed as a Trustee of the Trust?

A: It is a copy and I am not aware.

Q114: What are you not aware of?

A: The document you shown now.

Q115: Witness is shown original AFT resolution dated 07.05.2008 regarding sale of Trust property. Why have you not stated to the court that you have signed in the resolution of the Trust in the Trust Deed?

A: I am not aware of the document.

Q116: Are you disputing your signature in the original document?

A: I am saying that I am not aware of the document.

Q117: Witness is shown original AFT resolution dated 12.05.2008 and undated resolution regarding receipt of cheques of April and May 2008 by the Trust in which you are the signatory. Why have you not stated to the court that you have signed in the resolution of the Trust in the Trust Deed?

A: I am not aware of the document.

Q118: According to you, what is the procedure for termination of AFT?

A: I do not know the exact procedure for termination. In this case, the Trust had already ended.

Q119: I put it to you that only the board of Trustees can terminate the Trust as per the Trust Deed itself and they have not chosen to do so. What do you say?

A: Incorrect. The Trustee, my brother filed the suit along with me stating that the Trust had ended and my father the Managing Trustee confirmed the same.

A: I am not aware of this document you are showing.

Q125: I put it to you that AFT and Senthil Charitable Trust related documents were being reviewed even as on 2017 as addressed in the E-mail of 8th October 2019, to which you are privy and the trust is still in existence even subsequent to the year 2002. What do you say?

A: I deny.

Q126: When did your first marriage dissolve?

A: 2012.

Q127: If according to you, the AFT expired in the year 2002, what was your marital status at the time of alleged expiry of the trust?

A: I was married in 2002.

Q128: I put it to you that even as per your alleged claim of expiration of AFT on 27.05.2002, you lost your status as 'beneficiary' under the Trust, having married in the year 2001. What do you say?

A: I deny.

Q129: I put it to you that independent and outside of the assets of the Trust, your parents had already provided you with sufficient assets both movable and immovable assets. What do you say?

A: It is an irrelevant question to the AF Trust case.

Q130: I put it to you that your brother (2nd defendant) was never made aware by you or anyone else about the contents of the AFT Deed until your parents enlightened him about the contents of the same. What do you say?

A: I deny this. My brother who was a trustee filed the suit along with me jointly and has verified all the statements made in the suit himself.

Q131: I put it to you that since your father had access/possession of AFT Documents including AFT deed and Senthil Charitable Trust Deed, did you and your brother initially file this suit as co-plaintiffs, with your brother being unaware of the contents of the deed, since he trusted you with the contents of the plaint. What do you say?

A: It is false, my brother was very much aware of the contents about the Trust deed and the Trust in which he was a Trustee and he has verified the same in the plaint.

Q132: Ex.P6 to Ex.P8 are shown to the witness. I put it to you that communications (Ex.P6 to Ex.P8) were written by you allegedly as a Trustee of the AF Trust. What do you say?

A: I have not signed as a Trustee, only as a beneficiary.

Q133: Where is it indicated in the aforesaid communication that you write as a beneficiary and where have you sought for any benefit of the Trust for yourself, Kindly indicate?

A: It is implied.

Q134: I put it to you that there is no implication/alleged acceptance of your beneficiary status in the AFT by any of the family members.

What do you say?

A:I deny it. My father in his replies has not denied my rights in AFT and my brother has affirmed me as a beneficiary in the joint plaint filed by us.

Q135: I put it to you that you have misrepresented and approached this court with unclean hands and not entitled to any of the suit reliefs.

A: I deny.
