COMMON JUDGMENT

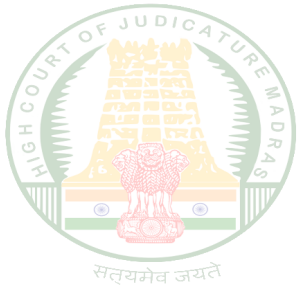

(Judgment of the Court was delivered by P.VELMURUGAN, J.)

On the earlier occasion, by order dated 23.03.2026, this Court directed issuance of notice through Court as well as privately, returnable within four weeks, and further directed the appellant/petitioner to file Affidavit of Service within the said period. It is made clear in the order that, any default in filing the Affidavit of Service, the appeals would stand dismissed automatically at the S.R.Stage itself, without further reference to the Court. Notwithstanding the said explicit direction, the Affidavit of Service has not been filed within the time stipulated, and batta has also not been paid till date.

2. The above conduct of the appellant/petitioner evidences lack of due diligence in prosecuting the case. In view of the non-compliance with the specific direction of this Court, these Civil Miscellaneous Petitions are dismissed for default. Consequently, the Original Side Appeal (CAD)s are rejected at the S.R.Stage itself.
