This matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Madras on 11.07.2025 before the Mediator Ms.G.Sridevi & J.Amritha Sareya. The learned counsel for the appellant as well as the learned counsel for the respondent are present. While the mediation was in progress, the third respondent had died and hence civil miscellaneous petitions have been moved before this Court to implead the proposed legal heirs on record. In all the civil miscellaneous petitions, notice was issued to the proposed legal heirs, however before this Court the proposed legal heirs are not present though notice were served and names printed in the cause list. This Court is anxious to ensure about the progress and the viability of the mediation before the mediation centre. No redundant exercises could be allowed before any one of the forums, if the proposed parties are not present before this Court it is not made certain how they will be able to appear before the mediation centre, when the learned counsel for the appellant submits that a draft settlement is already in the annual. Therefore, it is desirable that the
