For Respondent(s):

ORDER

Challenging the impugned order passed by the trial Judge in I.A. No. 17 of 2023 in O.S.No.843 of 2004, the defendants 1 and 2 have preferred this revision.

2. Before the trial Court, after commencement of trial, the plaintiffs filed an application seeking amendment of pleadings, with a prayer to declare eight gift settlement deeds dated between the years 2002 and 2003 as null and void. The said application was allowed by the learned trial Judge despite objections raised by the defendants, particularly with regard to limitation. The Court below, without properly appreciating the limitation aspect, allowed the application with costs. Aggrieved by the same, the present revision has been filed.

3. The learned counsel for the revision petitioner submitted that the respondents originally filed the suit in the year 2004 and the written statement was filed in the year 2007. Thereafter, for several years, no steps were taken to amend the pleadings. Only after the cross-examination of P.W.1, the plaintiff came forward with the present application seeking to declare the alleged settlement deeds of the years 2002 and 2003 as null and void. Therefore, the relief sought in respect of those documents is clearly barred by limitation. Without appreciating the same, the Court below erroneously allowed the application.
