

WEB COPY

AS No. 572 of 2024

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED: 21-01-2026

CORAM

THE HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE P.B. BALAJI

AS No. 572 of 2024
and CMP. No.17629 of 2024

1. R. Manoharan
2. M.Devakam

Appellant(s)

Vs

S. Arumugam

Respondent(s)

For Appellant(s): Mr.T. Gnanabanu

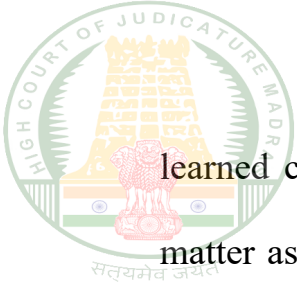

For Respondent(s): Mr. J.R.K.Bhavanantham

ORDER

Registry may place the appeal before DR.Justice.A.D.Maria Clete, since the learned counsel for the respondent/plaintiff was associated with me, during my Advocate days. The learned counsel for the appellant seeks for early listing of the appeal or alternatively, for interim protection since the respondent, taking advantage of the fact that there is no interim stay in the appeal, is proceeding with the Execution Petition and attachment of the immovable property of the appellant has also been ordered. The learned counsel for the appellant also offers to directly pay 50% of the principal amount viz., Rs.5,00,000/- to the respondent/plaintiff as a condition for grant of interim stay. Additionally, the learned counsel also states that the appellant is willing to amicably settle the matter as well. The learned counsel for the respondent, in the meantime, shall get instructions in this regard.

P.B.BALAJI.J.,

AS No. 572 of 2024

21-01-2026

rkp
To
The District Judge No.2, Kancheepuram.

AS No. 572 of 2024
and CMP. No.17629 of 2024